

OXFORD ENERGY LUNCH by The ZERO Institute & Oxford Energy Network

20th June 2025, 12-2PM, East Lab, School of Geography and the Environment, OX1 3QY

The Oxford Energy Lunches gather the vibrant, multi-disciplinary community of Oxford academics, researchers, students and professionals who work in energy.

Paul Shearing and Tina Fawcett will present ZERO and Energy Network initiatives, and there will be an informal open mike for your questions and announcements. We look forward to meeting you there!

Please register by 16th June:
